

(formerly: 1901 - 1902)
 Fortson Square - NOT Park property honor Capt. Geo. H. Fortson + other Seattle volunteers who died in 1901 in the Philippines during the Span-Amer. War. Origin planted, area paved (in 1907)? and a weather observation station located here (1908 - ?); "kiosk" - the concrete pedestal remained as a bench until 1968 when "street" or east side was closed, brick walk + lamps installed and plants (again!)

Jefferson St. named by Henry Yesler to honor third President.

Yesler Way named for Henry Yesler, pioneer logger; street was original road down which logs were skidded to his sawmill near Pioneer Square ("Skid Road"). His mansion was on site of present County Courthouse.

Dilling Way named for George W. Dilling, agent for Hunter Tract + Improv. Co. elected mayor by the "Forces of Decency" to replace recalled Hiram (Open City) Gill - 1911. (Gill came back in 1914 as a reform (Closed Town) mayor!)
