

Notice of Additional Hours

Secure Scheduling Requirements:

Under Seattle’s Secure Scheduling ordinance (SMC 14.22), employers must offer additional hours of work to current, qualified employees before hiring new employees. Employers must follow these requirements:

- Post notice of additional hours at the workplace for three days.
 - Provide all information that is on this form.
 - Provide all information in English and the primary language(s) of all employees at the workplace.
- Offer the additional hours to current, qualified employees.
- Provide qualified employees with two days to accept the offer.
